JARMAN

Terroir is the most important force in creating distinct wines. An estate wine from Carmel Valley, Jarman's terroir refers to a special place, and also to a special woman who inspired a family to bottle the essence of a mother's spirit. In honor of our mother's memory, we have vowed to take the best hand-selected estate grapes and create two premium varietals, Jarman Chardonnay and Jarman Pinot Noir.

$1 from each bottle sold will go to the Alzheimer's Drug Discovery Foundation.

The funds will be used for Alzheimer's drug research to help find effective treatments for this dreadful disease that touches millions.

TASTING NOTES

The Jarman label will reflect quality, with only the best local grapes used during an artisanal, small-batch winemaking process. Jarman wine uses only 100 percent estate-grown, organic and certified-sustainable grapes. Aged in French oak barrels, Jarman's vintages are held in limited supply, and not available anywhere outside the tasting room.

The two varietals include:

the 2013 Jarman Pinot Noir takes on nuances of warm blueberry pie, cloves and cinnamon that mingle in the nose with oak notes from 10 months in the barrel. The mouth-feel is plump and juicy with overtones of cassis and blackberries.

the 2014 Jarman Chardonnay features floral notes reminiscent of walking by a parfumerie in France, subtle and pleasant with a hint of earthiness. When serving this wine lightly chilled, rich notes of under-ripe berries and raw honey will waltz across your palate.
